Faith Hill a special night.. Faith Hill comes to Orillia

Casinorama pays Faith Hill a 7 digit figure to perform a 1 night show live at Casinorama's grand opening last night.

Their new 5000 seat music theatre is beautiful. It has all the state of the art upgrades. i.e. fabulous sound and lighting system. Not to mention, the new theatre is spacious and offers the public a great view of the stage where ever one maybe sitting.

The new music theatre has a stage which is approximately 30 by 25 with a 5 foot lift.

The theatre aisles and walk ways provide easy access to walk through. The ushers, show host and security people were all very helpful and courteous. Their not kidding when they say Casinorama creates excitement.

On July 18, 2001 the media along with a large crowd of people gathered at Casinorama to welcome the Casinorama's grand opening night, starring the beautiful and sensational Faith Hill.

Everybody came out to see Casinorama's new music theatre where the fabulous looking superstar Faith Hill performed live. Politicians, sports celebrities and entertainment executives in the house. The place was packed!

One of the opening highlights of the night was when Ringo Starr came out to introduce singing sensation Faith Hill to the stage.

Ringo Starr also happened to be in the house as he and his all-star band were also going to be transmitting their world-wide press conference as well as performing on the same stage at Casinorama a week later.

Faith Hill performed for only 50 minutes and sang a total of 15 songs. Although it was a short concert, it was clear how entertained fans were at the new music theatre.

Closing remarks, the overall grand opening of Casinorama's new music theatre and concert event was a huge success.
